

COLETTE CARLSON INTRODUCTION:

Let me begin with a serious question: How many feel work would be easier if you didn't have to work with other people?

If you can relate, you're in the right room.

Our speaker today is an authority in Human Behavior, which means she understands why people act the way they do --- and has strategies on how to make them stop!

Her global reach extends across five continents, and her clientele reads like a Fortune 500 roll call: Microsoft, Pepsi, FedEx, and Costco to name a few.

She's not only a Certified Speaking Professional, a prestigious title held by fewer than 10% of speakers worldwide, but also a distinguished inductee into the Professional Speaker Hall of Fame.

Originally from the south side of Chicago she now lives in San Diego, but pizza is still her love language.

Please help me welcome Colette Carlson.
